Albany, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

I am writing to tell you we have decided not to come to Albany on August 23rd; as we drew so poorly on our last appearance there, we are afraid it will be taking a big gamble. Maybe at a later date I will be able to arrange some local contact that would help us to build up some interest there. Until then I am afraid we cannot afford to take the gamble.

Thank you very much for your cooperation to date.

Very truly yours,
